The Oncenter Hires New Banquet Manager

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Oncenter has hired Ebony Mitchell as the new Banquet Manager with a focus on concessions.

Mitchell is a graduate of SUNY Delhi, Delhi, NY, where she received an A.A.S. Degree in Restaurant and Food Service Management, and a B.B.A. in Hospitality Management. Mitchell is experienced in both the front of the house and the back of the house operations. Her previous management positions include Restaurant Manager, Assistant Back of the House Manager and Catering Supervisor.

Ebony's knowledge of the point of sales and inventory process, food production and menu costing, along with her dedication to providing every guest with an exceptional food and beverage experience, will be instrumental to the overall customer experience at The Oncenter.

About the Oncenter Complex: The Oncenter, a multi-venue exhibition, convention and entertainment facility in Syracuse, N.Y., consisting of three venues. It is centrally located in the Northeast to attract both regional and national events that contribute to the economic and cultural development of Onondaga County. The Oncenter Convention Center is a 99,000-square-foot structure ideal for major conventions, meetings, banquets, consumer shows, trade shows, car shows, exhibitions and corporate awards dinners. The space includes exhibition halls, a ballroom and break-out meeting rooms. Next door, The Oncenter War Memorial has the versatility to accommodate numerous large-scale events, including ice shows, family shows, car shows, concerts, sports events and conventions. The Oncenter Civic Center Theaters is home to three beautiful, distinct theaters that host a diverse variety of events, from stage productions to business meetings. The Oncenter has received the Inner Circle Award for being one of the Top 15 convention centers in the nation for eleven consecutive years. For more information, visit www.oncenter.org.
