TRANS-SIBERIAN ORCHESTRA RETURNS TO THE ONCENTER

SYRACUSE, NY – The Trans-Siberian Orchestra is back at The Oncenter War Memorial Arena for one night only: Friday, April 8, 2011 at 8pm. Be part of the 7 million people who have enjoyed the unique sound of TSO!

TSO has sold over 7 million albums and have played in over 80 cities since taking the road in 1999. They are returning to the United States from Europe for an eight-week tour. TSO Creator/Writer/Producer Paul O'Neill created a theatrical experience that combined with arena rock takes this new genre to unprecedented levels.

Beethoven's Last Night is sure to be one of the best shows you have ever experienced! Tickets go on sales to the public Saturday, February 19, 2011 at 10am. Prices are $52.50 and $42.50 (additional fees may apply). Tickets can be purchased in person at The Oncenter Box Office, by phone by calling (315) 435-2121, or via ticketmaster.com.

About the Oncenter: The Oncenter, a multi-venue exhibition, convention and entertainment facility in Syracuse, N.Y., consists of three venues. The Nicolas J. Pirro Convention Center is ideal for major conventions, meetings, banquets, consumer shows, trade shows, and corporate events. The War Memorial Arena has the versatility to accommodate numerous large-scale events, including ice shows, family shows, concerts, and sporting events. The John H. Mulroy Civic Center Theaters is home to three beautiful, distinct theaters that host a diverse variety of events, and is home to the Syracuse Symphony, Syracuse Opera and stage productions.
